Last week, Ken's school had a school trip to Kyoto for four days. Last year, they went to Okinawa and learned about peace. The purpose of the trip this year was to study the history of the city. On the first day of the trip, Ken got up very early because he was too excited. They left school at eight in the morning by bus and got to Kyoto at noon. It was rainy and cool that day but the other three days, it was sunny and warm. Ken bought some things for his family. He bought a pen for his father and a pretty wallet for his mother. He bought his brother chopsticks. Next year, Ken's school will visit Hokkaido to work on a farm as volunteers.
